Poudre High School Theatre finds true love on a midwinter's night in Almost, Maine

It's 9 p.m. on a Friday night in the fictitious town of Almost in the great state of Maine. The northern lights are dancing and making magic. Nineteen characters experience the extraordinary on an ordinary night, as will you. Love is in the air, so bring your sweetheart and enjoy an evening of brilliant theatre.

Written by John Cariani, a successful actor starring in Law and Order (CSU tech Julian Beck), as well as numerous films and Broadway shows, the premiere production was named as one of the top ten new plays of 2004/5. A Maine native, Cariani weaves his intimate knowledge of Maine with his love of acting, writing a script full of challenges and rewards for its actors. Audiences will be amazed as six actors tell the stories of nineteen people in close up portraits of love and heartache.

Considered Poudre's "varsity" show, you will see a stellar cast of familiar and new faces. Seniors Scott Trout, Zach Eulberg, and Cypress Staelin-Lefsky perform one of their last Poudre shows. Juniors Savannah Ray Bearden and Jessica Lenczycki and sophomore Michael Cienfuegos-Bacca shine in multiple roles. Amber Anderson, director of the recent Hello, Dolly and Romeo and Juliet, promises a heartfelt experience with these talented young actors.

Be a part of the magic and buy tickets at www.showtix4U.com. Tickets are $8 for adults and $6 for students for the 7 p.m. performances on Wednesday, February 24, Thursday, February 25, and Friday, February 26. There is no Saturday performance. Tickets may also be purchased in the PHS main hallway during lunch on show dates and just prior to the show. No reserve seating. The show is mature in content. Please call for more information: Amber Anderson, 488-6212.

Until then, snuggle up and stay warm.
